

A Colossal City in Space

Amazing Facts
Study Guide

Talk about a great city!

New York, Tokyo, and

London are nothing in comparison! Just wait until you grasp the amazing facts about this gigantic city that can travel through space. It's all fact, not science fiction! The information in this Study Guide will thrill your soul and give you hope for your future!

1. Who is the architect and builder of this space city?

"Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God, for He has prepared a city for them" (Hebrews 11:16).

Answer: The Bible declares that God is building a great city for His people. And this city is as real and literal as any you have ever known.

God is the architect and builder of the holy city.

2. Where is this amazing city that God is preparing?

"Then I, John, saw the holy city, New Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God" (Revelation 21:2). "O LORD my God ... hear in heaven Your dwelling place" (1 Kings 8:28, 30).

Answer: This great city that is being constructed is, at this moment, in far outer space in God's dwelling place, which is called heaven.

God's amazing city is located in heaven, His dwelling place.

3. How do the Scriptures describe this amazing space city?

Answer:

(A) SIZE

"The city is laid out as a square; its length is as great as its breadth. And he measured the city with the reed: twelve thousand furlongs" (Revelation 21:16). The city is perfectly square.

Its perimeter is 12,000 furlongs, or 1,500 miles (a furlong is 1/8 mile). It is 375 miles long on each side.

Notice the city's size compared to several states.

(B) NAME

The city is called "new Jerusalem" in Revelation 21:2.

(C) WALLS

"He measured its wall and it was 144 cubits thick. ... The wall was made of jasper" (Revelation 21:17, 18). A wall 144 cubits, or 216 feet high (a cubit is 18 inches), surrounds the city.

The city's jasper walls are nearly 20 stories tall.

The wall is made of solid jasper, with radiance and beauty beyond description. Think of it! Nearly 20 stories high and solid jasper!

(D) GATES

"It had a great, high wall with twelve gates. ... There were three gates on the east, three on the north, three on the south and three on the west. ... The twelve gates were twelve pearls, each gate made of a single pearl"

Each city gate is made of one solid pearl.

(Revelation 21:12, 13, 21). The city has 12 gates—three on each side—each one made of a single pearl.

(E) FOUNDATIONS

"The wall of the city had twelve foundations ... decorated with every kind of precious stone. The first foundation was jasper, the second sapphire, the third chalcedony, the fourth emerald, the fifth sardonyx, the sixth carnelian, the seventh chrysolite, the eighth beryl, the ninth topaz, the tenth chrysoptase, the eleventh jacinth, and the twelfth amethyst" (Revelation 21:14, 19, 20). The city has 12 full, complete foundations—each one made of precious stone. Every color of the rainbow will be represented, so at a distance the city will no doubt appear to be resting upon a rainbow.

Every color of the rainbow will be represented, so at a distance the city will no doubt appear to be resting upon a rainbow.

(F) STREETS

"The great street of the city was of pure gold, like transparent glass" (Revelation 21:21).

(G) APPEARANCE

"The Holy City, ... prepared as a bride beautifully dressed for her husband ... shone with the glory of God, and its brilliance was like that of a very precious jewel, like a jasper, clear as crystal. ... The city was laid out like a square, as long as it was wide" (Revelation 21:2, 11, 16). The city, with all of its precious stones, gold, and shimmering beauty, will be lighted with the glory of God. In its breathtaking majesty and purity it is compared to "a bride beautifully dressed for her husband."

The city streets will be pure gold—reflecting heaven's glories as a mirror.

4. What phenomenal feature of this majestic city assures every citizen eternal vigor and youth?

“In the middle of its street, and on either side of the river, was the tree of life, which bore twelve fruits, each tree yielding its fruit every month. The leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations” (Revelation 22:2). “Take also of the tree of life, and eat, and live forever” (Genesis 3:22).

Answer: The tree of life, which bears 12 kinds of fruit (and is in the middle of the city—Revelation 2:7), brings unending life and youth to all who partake of it. Even its leaves will contain marvelous sustaining qualities. This tree will yield a new crop of fruit each month.

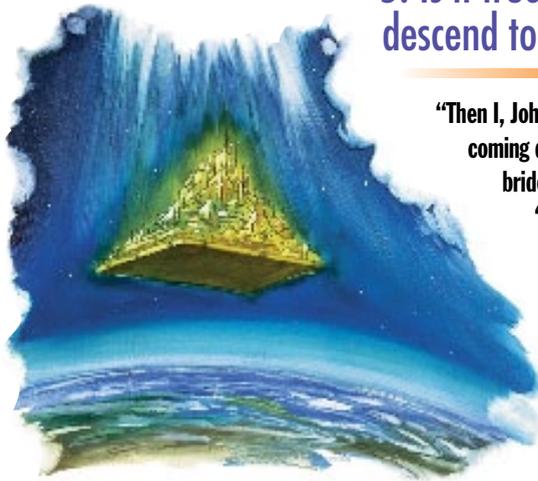

Heaven's fantastic tree of life brings unending life and youth to all who eat of it.

5. Is it true that this amazing city will descend to this earth?

“Then I, John, [a] saw the holy city, New Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband” (Revelation 21:2).

“Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth” (Matthew 5:5). “The righteous will be recompensed on the earth” (Proverbs 11:31).

Answer: Yes, the majestic holy city will come down to this earth to become the capital of the earth made new. All the righteous will have a home in this city.

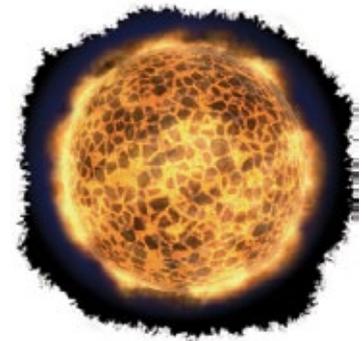

The holy city will descend to earth and become its capital.

6. What will happen to sin and sinners?

“All the proud, yes, all who do wickedly will be stubble. And the day which is coming shall burn them up” (Malachi 4:1). “The elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up” (2 Peter 3:10). “You shall trample the wicked, for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet” (Malachi 4:3). “Nevertheless we, according to His promise, look for new heavens and a new earth in which righteousness dwells” (2 Peter 3:13).

Answer: God will cleanse the earth from sin and sinners, and will make a perfect new earth, and the holy city will be its capital. Here the righteous will live in joy, peace, and holiness throughout eternity. God promises that sin will not rise up again. See Nahum 1:9. (For full information on hell, see Study Guide 11.)

Sin and sinners will be cleansed from the earth.

In His new kingdom the Lord will personally live among His people.

7. What refreshing, thrilling promises does God make to the people who enter His new kingdom?

Answer:

(A) The Lord, in person, will live with them (Revelation 21:3).

(B) They will never become bored. There will be pleasures forevermore (Psalm 16:11).

(C) There will be no more death, pain, tears, sorrow, sickness, hospitals, operations, tragedy, disappointment, trouble, hunger, or thirst (Revelation 21:4; Isaiah 33:24; Revelation 22:3; Isaiah 65:23; Revelation 7:16).

(D) They will not get tired (Isaiah 40:31).

(E) Every saved person will be physically whole in every way. The deaf will hear, the blind will see, the dumb will sing, and the lame will be able to run (Isaiah 35:5, 6; Philippians 3:21).

(F) Jealousy, fear, hatred, falsehood, envy, impurity, cynicism, filth, worry, and all evil will be forever shut out of God's kingdom (Revelation 21:8, 27; 22:15). People will no longer be burdened with the worries and the cares that drive them to distraction. There will be no more nervous breakdowns. Time will become eternity, and the pressures and deadlines of earth will be gone forever.

There will be no use for crutches and wheelchairs in heaven.

8. How will the new earth differ from our earth today?

Answer:

(A) Vast seas as we know them today will be gone (Revelation 21:1). The oceans and seas cover three-fourths of the earth's surface today. This will not be the case in God's new kingdom. The whole world will be one huge garden of unsurpassed beauty, interspersed with lakes, rivers, and mountains (Revelation 22:1; Acts 3:20, 21).

(B) The deserts will become gardens (Isaiah 35:1, 2).
(C) The animals will all be tame. None will prey upon others, and a little child will lead them (Isaiah 11:6-9; Isaiah 65:25).

(D) There will be no more curse (Revelation 22:3).

(E) There will be no more violence of any kind (Isaiah 60:18). This precludes crime, storms, floods, earthquakes, tornadoes, injury, etc.

(F) Nothing defiling will be found in the new earth (Revelation 21:27). There will be no cigarette butts, tobacco juice, drunkards, taverns, alcoholic beverages, brothels, lewd pictures, or any other wickedness or impurity of any kind.

Children will safely play with lions in the earth made new.

Today's mammoth oceans will not exist in God's new kingdom.

There will be no more natural disasters in the new earth.

Children, playing together, will fill the streets of the new Jerusalem.

9. Will there be children in God's kingdom? If so, will they grow up?

"The streets of the city shall be full of boys and girls playing in its streets" (Zechariah 8:5). "And you shall go out and grow ... like stall-fed calves" (Malachi 4:2).

Answer: Yes, there will be many boys and girls in the holy city (Isaiah 11:6-9), and these youngsters will grow up (Malachi 4:2). We have degenerated much in stature, intellect, and vitality since Adam, but all of this will be restored (Acts 3:20, 21).

10. When reunited with loved ones in heaven, will the saved know each other?

"Then I shall know just as I also am known" (1 Corinthians 13:12).

Answer: The Bible clearly teaches that righteous loved ones who have died will be raised to join the righteous living in God's kingdom (Isaiah 26:19; Jeremiah 31:15-17; 1 Corinthians 15:51-55; 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18). And the Scriptures also teach that people in God's new kingdom will know each other, just as people recognize each other on the earth today.

11. Will people in heaven be real, with flesh and bones?

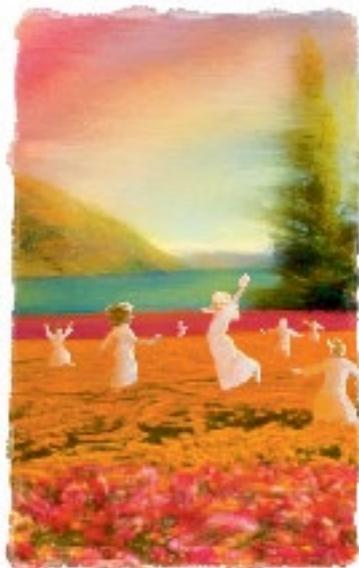

"Jesus Himself stood in the midst of them, and said to them, 'Peace to you.' But they were terrified and frightened, and supposed they had seen a spirit. And He said to them, 'Why are you troubled? And why do doubts arise in your hearts? Behold My hands and My feet, that it is I Myself. Handle Me and see, for a spirit does not have flesh and bones as you see I have.' ...

But while they still did not believe for joy, and marveled, He said to them, 'Have you any food here?' So they gave Him a piece of a broiled fish and some honeycomb. And He took it and ate in their presence. ... And He led them out as far as Bethany, and ... while He blessed them, that He was parted from them and carried up into heaven" (Luke 24:36-39, 41-43, 50, 51). "This same Jesus, who was taken up from you into heaven, will so come in like manner as you saw Him go into heaven" (Acts 1:11). "The Lord Jesus Christ ... will transform our lowly body that it may be conformed to His glorious body" (Philippians 3:20, 21).

Answer: After His resurrection Jesus proved to His disciples that He was flesh and bones by having them feel Him and by eating food. This same Jesus of flesh and bones ascended to His Father and will come again to the earth. The righteous will be given bodies just like the body of Christ and will be real people with flesh and bones throughout eternity. The difference will be that the heavenly body will not be subject to death, decay, or deterioration. The teaching that the saved in heaven will be ghosts who float on mist clouds and do nothing but play harps has no foundation in the Scriptures. Jesus did not die on the cross to provide any such trivial and foolish future for those who accept His love and nobly follow His way of life. Most people have no interest in such an ethereal existence and, therefore, have little or no desire to enter God's heavenly kingdom—often preferring it only because they fear hell. If only all people everywhere could learn the truth about God's holy city and new earth, millions would begin to understand His love and would turn to Him with all their hearts. A person who misses out on God's kingdom has made the supreme blunder of a lifetime.

In heaven real people will experience real joys. The fondest hopes of the human heart will be realized.

No human tongue can describe the glory and delight of the pure music of heaven.

12. How will the righteous spend their time in the heavenly kingdom?

“They shall build houses and inhabit them; They shall plant vineyards and eat their fruit. They shall not build and another inhabit; They shall not plant and another eat; . . . And My elect shall long enjoy the work of their hands” (Isaiah 65:21, 22).

Answer: The righteous will build their own homes in the new earth. (Each will also have a city mansion built by Christ—John 14:1-3.) They will plant vineyards and eat the fruit from them. The Bible is plain. Real people do real things in heaven, and they will thoroughly enjoy it all.

13. In what other thrilling activities will the redeemed be engaged?

Answer:

(A) Sing and play heavenly music (Isaiah 35:10; 51:11; Psalm 87:7; Revelation 14:2, 3).

(B) Worship before God’s throne every week (Isaiah 66:22, 23).

Gardening in heaven will bring incredible joy and satisfaction.

(C) Enjoy never-fading flowers and trees (Ezekiel 47:12; Isaiah 35:1, 2).

(D) Visit with loved ones, patriarchs, prophets, etc. (Matthew 8:11; Revelation 7:9-17).

(E) Study the animals of heaven (Isaiah 11:6-9; 65:25).

(F) Travel and explore without ever becoming weary (Isaiah 40:31).

(G) Listen to God sing (Zephaniah 3:17).

(H) Realize fondest ambitions (Psalm 37:3, 4; Isaiah 65:24).

(I) Greatest joy of all—the privilege of being like Jesus, traveling with Him, and seeing Him face to face (Revelation 14:4; 22:4; 21:3; 1 John 3:2).

Heaven will bring us the privilege of becoming friends with Bible patriarchs and prophets.

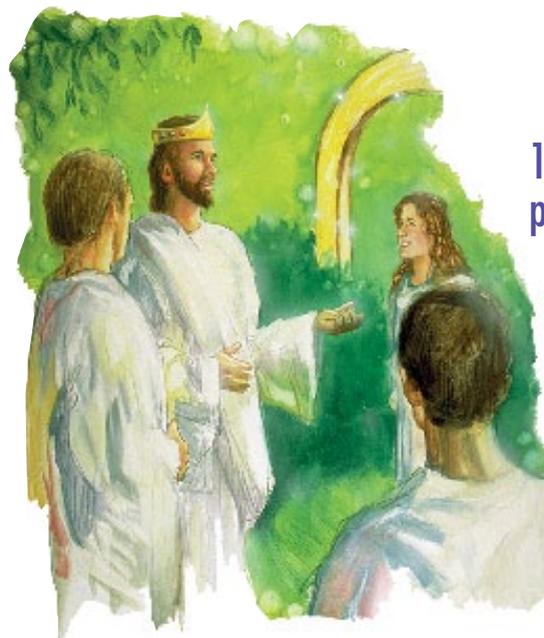

14. Can feeble human language really describe the glories of the heavenly home?

“Eye has not seen, nor ear heard, nor have entered into the heart of man the things which God has prepared for those who love Him” (1 Corinthians 2:9).

Answer: Not even in its wildest dreams can the heart of man begin to comprehend the marvels of God’s eternal kingdom. All that Adam lost will be restored (Acts 3:20, 21).

Heaven will be far more glorious and rewarding than anything we can possibly imagine.

Jesus is preparing heaven for you personally. You matter to Him.

15. Is this kingdom being prepared for me personally?

“Whoever desires, let him take the water of life freely” (Revelation 22:17). “To an inheritance incorruptible . . . reserved in heaven for you” (1 Peter 1:4). “I go to prepare a place for you” (John 14:2).

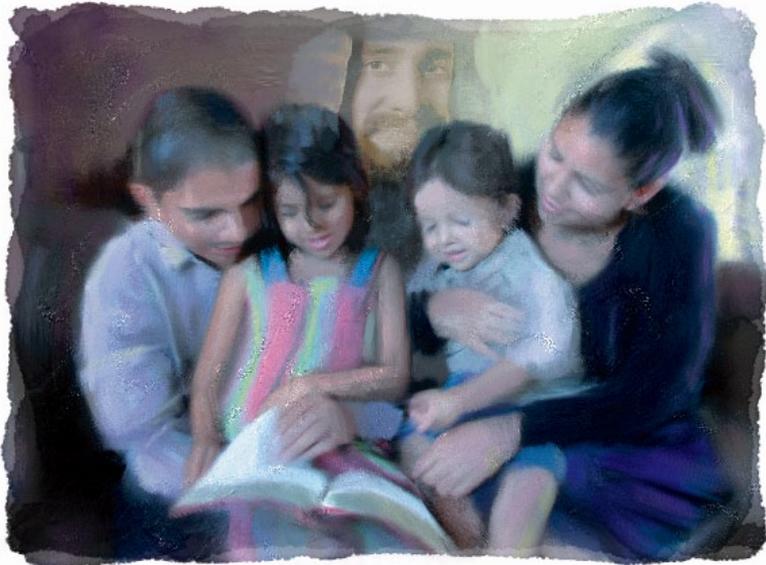

Answer: It is prepared for you personally. The invitation from the Lord is to you personally. If rejected, friend, you will have no one to blame but yourself.

16. How can I be assured of a place in that great and glorious kingdom?

“Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in” (Revelation 3:20). “Blessed are those who do His commandments, that they may have the right to the tree of life, and may enter through the gates into the city” (Revelation 22:14). “Not everyone who says to Me, ‘Lord, Lord,’ shall enter the kingdom of heaven, but he who does the will of My Father in heaven” (Matthew 7:21). “But as many as received Him, to them He gave the right to become children of God” (John 1:12). “The blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanses us from all sin” (1 John 1:7).

Answer: The Bible makes it plain. It is simple. Give your life to Christ for cleansing from sin. When you do this, He also gives you power to do His will and keep His commandments. This means, of course, that you will begin to live as Christ lived and will overcome all sin. “He who overcomes shall inherit all things” (Revelation 21:7). In short, a person is prepared for heaven when he has heaven in his heart.

When Jesus lives in our hearts and abides in our homes, we are assured of a place in His heavenly kingdom.

17. Have you decided to accept Jesus' glorious offer to live with Him forever in His heavenly kingdom?

Your Answer: _____

YOUR THOUGHT QUESTIONS ANSWERED

1 How can heaven be a happy place when the saved think of loved ones who are lost?

ANSWER: The Bible says that God will “wipe away every tear from their eyes” (Revelation 21:4). Surrounded by the beauty and joys of the new earth, God’s redeemed people will forget the tragedies and heartaches of the past; “the former shall not be remembered or come to mind” (Isaiah 65:17).

2 The Bible says, “Flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God” (1 Corinthians 15:50). How, then, can the redeemed be flesh and bones?

ANSWER: Here Paul re-emphasizes what he told us in verses 35-49, that our resurrected bodies will be different from our present bodies. Man’s corruptible body isn’t fit to enjoy the perfect kingdom of heaven. When man sinned, his nature and body were changed. Therefore, when he enters the bliss of Eden restored his body will be changed and adapted to the perfection of heaven. “Flesh and blood” is simply a figure of speech referring to the body of man on this earth (see Matthew 16:17; Galatians 1:16; Ephesians 6:12), and therefore should not be limited to bald literalness. Christ, in His resurrected body, declared that He was truly “flesh and bones” (Luke 24:39). And according to Philippians 3:21 we will have bodies like His.

3 Is the apostle Peter in charge of the gate of the holy city?

ANSWER: No! The Bible says in Revelation 21:12 that the new Jerusalem—the holy city of God—has 12 gates, and at the gates are 12 angels. No reference is made in the Bible to any of the apostles as guardians of the gates.

4 Is the holy city really big enough to hold all the saved people of all ages?

ANSWER: If the city were to be crowded and each saved person given only 100 square feet of ground space, there would be room for 39 billion people in the city, which is many times the present population of the world. Many statisticians believe that if all the people who have ever lived were saved, there would be plenty of room for them in the city. The Scriptures make it clear, however, that only a few will be saved (Matthew 7:14). So there will be more than enough room in the great city.

5 Sometimes I wonder if the reward is worth the sacrifice. It seems that Satan is about to overwhelm me at times. Does the Bible offer me any encouragement?

ANSWER: Yes. In fact, the apostle Paul must have been thinking of someone like you when he wrote, “The sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us” (Romans 8:18). Just one glimpse of that eternal kingdom will cause the worst trials and persecutions of earth to pale into insignificance, and the redeemed will cry out: “Hallelujah, heaven is cheap enough!”

6 Will little babies who die be saved in God’s kingdom?

ANSWER: We do not have a specific Bible answer to this question, but many choose to believe that infants will be saved on the basis of Matthew 2:16-18. There the Bible tells of wicked king Herod slaying all the male babies in Bethlehem who were two years old or younger. The Old Testament foretold this tragic, cruel incident, and God told the mothers to stop crying because their children would one day be restored to them. “Refrain your voice from weeping, ... they [the slain children] shall come back from the land of the enemy. ... Your children shall come back to their own border” (Jeremiah 31:16, 17). This is an obvious reference to the resurrection.

7 Do I understand correctly that heaven, the home of the saved, will be right here on this earth?

ANSWER: That is correct. Although the holy city is now in God’s dwelling place, He is going to move it to this earth. The holy city will be the capital of the new earth, and God will move His throne here (Revelation 21:2, 3; 22:1, 3) and live with the righteous right here on this earth throughout eternity. And where the Lord abides, that is heaven. God’s plan is to restore to man what Adam lost: the glories of a perfect life on a perfect planet. Satan and sin interrupted God’s plan, but the plan will be carried out. We can all share in this new kingdom—and we must! It’s too much to miss. (For additional information on this subject, see Study Guide 12.)

8 Why do so many teach and believe that the home of the saved is a misty place with ghostlike inhabitants who float on clouds and do nothing but play harps?

ANSWER: This teaching originated with the devil, the father of lies (John 8:44). He is anxious to distort God’s loving plan and present heaven as an unreal, “spooky” place so people will lose interest or become skeptical of God’s Word altogether. Satan well knows that when men and women fully understand the Bible truth regarding the home of the saved, his power over them is broken, because they will begin making plans to enter that kingdom. This is why he works so hard to becloud the issue and spread falsehood regarding that heavenly home.
